HARVARD-WESTLAKE ATHLETIC FACILITIES

The Copses Family Pool on Harvard-Westlake's upper school campus is a 50-meter pool, manufactured by Myrtha Pools in Mantua, Italy.

The stainless-steel pool features a surge tank underneath the pool deck to keep the water level, which reduces water resistance for swimmers. The facility also includes a pool house and bleachers.

The Copses Pool is home to Harvard-Westlake's 2013 CIF-SS Boys' Water Polo Division I Champions, who were also named Totalwaterpolo.com's #1 ranked team in the United States.

The Taper Gymnasium is located on Harvard-Westlake's Upper School Campus.

Its walls, festooned with league, CIF-Southern Section, State and National Championship banners tells of the storied Wolverine athletic program.

Taper gym is home of the Wolverine Basketball and Volleyball programs.

The recently renovated O'Malley Family Field in Encino, is Harvard-Westlake's state-of-the-art baseball complex, featuring professional grade turf, drainage and irrigation systems, dugouts, bullpens, clubhouse and a covered hitting facility behind the right-field fence.

The O'Malley Field is home to HW's 2013 CIF-SS Division I Baseball Champions, who were also named the 2013 Perfect Game High School National Champions.

Ted Slavin Field is located on the Upper School Campus. Built in 2003, it features an NFL-caliber Field Turf surface and a synthetic track.

It is the proud home of Wolverine Football, Soccer, Track & Field, Lacrosse, and Field Hockey.

Many of our student athletes who have graced the Ted Slavin field have gone on to professional, Olympic and collegiate success in their chosen sports.

Sports Performance

It is the mission of the Sports Performance Department to encourage each student athlete to strive for excellence.

Our primary objectives are to teach the proper fundamentals of strength and conditioning, improve athletic performance, and reduce the risk of injury.

SPORTS MEDICINE

The Harvard-Westlake School Sports Medicine Program provides injury prevention, care and treatment services to the school's student-athletes. The Sports Medicine Program strives to establish itself as a model of excellence in sports medicine care.

Our services are categorized into the following areas: injury prevention (taping, bracing, padding, orthotic construction), management of athletic injuries (first aid, evaluation, referral, contest coverage) and rehabilitation of athletic injuries. We educate student-athletes about athletic injuries so they are empowered to lead healthier, injury-free lives. We use the best technology available for the prevention and treatment of athletic injuries and upgrade equipment and supplies whenever necessary.

There are four main goals of the Sports Medicine Program:

- Provide efficient and timely care to our student-athletes.
- Encourage an atmosphere that values health and wellness.
- Enable injured student-athletes to safely return to competition as soon as possible.
- Reduce the risk of athletic injury for our student-athletes.

We work closely with the strength and conditioning program, the coaches, the athletic support staff, school administration, physicians and other healthcare providers to provide the best possible healing environment for our student-athletes.

- Department Chair, Brian Gallagher

HEAD OF HARVARD-WESTLAKE BOYS' BASKETBALL PROGRAM

DAVID REBIBO
HEAD OF PROGRAM
BOYS' BASKETBALL

I am honored and excited to enter in to my third year with the Harvard-Westlake community as the Head Boys' Basketball Coach," said Rebibo. "Harvard-Westlake is renowned for its commitment to excellence in academics and athletics, which matches my own coaching and educational values.

I am inspired by the outstanding educators and coaches on campus and I have enjoyed contributing my own energy, enthusiasm, and experience to the basketball program, the athletic department and the school.

The 2017 CIF-SS playoffs were an exciting adventure for our team, showing how much we grew over our very competitive Mission League season. Winning the Division IA CIF-SS Championship to add to the State title won in 2016 was a dream come true for everyone in the program.

We have a very young and very exciting new squad of players who hope to continue and grow the legacy of Wolverine basketball while entertaining the best fans in High School basketball – The HW Fanatics. We look forward to seeing you all in Taper this season.
